typetogether

Even though type foundries and the typography business are almost completely digital nowadays, print isn't dead. Printed font specimens show a typeface's capabilities apart from a screen environment, and well designed font catalogues remain among the favourite possessions of many type designers, graphic designers, and discerning collectors of ephemera. At TypeTogether, we make sure to design and print small series of specimens on a regular basis; it has also become a tradition to publish a more comprehensive font catalogue every five years. We are proud to present this third edition of the TypeTogether catalogue.

A lot of water has gone under the bridge since our 2014 edition; many things changed, and many remain the same. In the past five years our team has steadily grown by welcoming many experts from all over the world into our extended family. This has created a wonderful environment of ethnic, cultural, and gender diversity within the TypeTogether team.

With the help of a larger team, TypeTogether was able to multiply its efforts in typographic education. In 2014 we created the Gerard Unger Scholarship (previously named Typeface Publishing Incentive Programme) for type design students and are extremely proud to announce that the first three recipients are included in this catalogue.

We continually uphold our commitment to global communication by providing more and better support for different languages and scripts. We collaborate with the most renowned linguists and typographic consultants to ensure we create entire type families with individual shapes that are both well designed and respectful of regional cultural heritage. Our library now supports 12 unique scripts and hundreds of languages, and we are working hard to expand this list.

Our library has almost doubled in size since our previous catalogue in 2014. Because of this we decided to create a new TypeTogether website which allows users to quickly find font families that meet their needs and often exceed their expectations. Our new online store allows users to filter fonts by style, category, script, and desired use.

The new website also serves as a platform to share knowledge and inspiration. Our blog carries interviews, case studies, articles, and examples of our fonts in use. To trigger ideas about what can be done when type and graphic designers work together toward impressive goals, the website's custom type section has a detailed account of the process behind tailored typeface design projects.

Last but not least, we have made a conscious effort to have a more fluid relationship with font users by encouraging a perpetual discussion about their type requirements. As our name suggests, we remain convinced that the best typography is done together.

Pilar Cano and Ferran Milan's Arlette expands the sans serif genre in both Latin and Thai. It amplifies content with its ability to master an unseen world of countless emotions and physical applications. Its curvy nature creates forms with gestural vigour, perfect for branding, editorial, young adult works, and packaging. Because it pushes experimentation without compromising readability, Arlette's two scripts are surprisingly legible in small sizes and arrestingly beautiful when their details can be seen.

El mate es una tradición muy popular en nuestro país y se estima que al menos el 80% de la población ingiere ésta infusión diariamente. Si bien en sus inicios el mate estaba constituido solamente por la mezcla de yerba y agua caliente, con el paso del tiempo se hicieron diversos experimentos que trascendieron las generaciones y se instalaron para siempre. Azúcar, café, limón son ingredientes que se les agregaron para darle otro tipo de pasión.

Juan Bruce's mature serif family, Noort, is an information architect's dream: A functional and fascinating serif with a look that withstands complexity of information and style. This is particularly seen in the historically grounded icon designs, updated with a simple text-based selection process. The designer's complex job of layering information and stylistic design choices can be balanced by Noort's easily-read nature and analogue details.

China's multi-mast sailing junks were carrying over 200 people as early as 200 AD and by the medieval period were particularly massive. The Southeast Asian Seafarers, Polynesians, and Northern European Vikings concurrently developed oceangoing vessels and depended heavily upon them for travel and population movements prior to 1000 AD. In early modern India and Arabia the lateen-sail ship known as the dhow was used on the waters of the Red Sea, Indian Ocean, and Persian Gulf. 9/12PT

China's early trade exports included pepper, safflower, and fine spices.² There were two main trade routes during this time; an Islamic merchant network from Arabia to ports of China, and the Tamil network from the Chola kingdom to the coast of India. "Water was the cheapest and usually the only way to transport goods in bulk over..." 10/12PT

3. In theory, this level of accuracy could give a line of position within a nautical mile of the navigator's actual position.

Aby stvořil dokonalou vizi, Leingruber vytvořil podobu budoucích Facebookových identifikačních karet, které ukazují pravé jméno, uživatelské jméno, pohlaví, bydliště, datum připojení k Facebooku a QR kód s odkazem na profil. Začátkem března už tyto průkazy rozdával lidem v supermarketu v Berlíně, 16. března se pak chystá na konferenci Unlike Us do nizozemského Amsterdamu.

Sauna, kde se neohřejete

Teplota minus 130 stupňů, to je sauna naruby

„Celotělová kryoterapie je krátkodobý pobyt v teplotě minus 130 stupňů, při kterém nedojde ke snížení teploty lidského jádra,“ popisuje proceduru Roman Hrabaň z pražského Kryocentra. Při procedurách, které trvají dvě až čtyři minuty, dochází v lidském těle k tlumení zánětů, otoků, zvyšování hladin hormonů v krvi a posílení imunity. Léčba mrazem však rozhodně není pro každého. Lidé, kteří mají problémy se srdcem, by raději na terapii chodit neměli. „Před první procedurou kontrolujeme tlak krve. Pokud je vše v pořádku, návštěvník si oblékne speciální kratasy a ponožky a odchází k poláriu, tedy k zařízení pro celotělovou kryoterapii,“ popisuje Hrabaň. Než vše začne, je návštěvník seznámen s průběhem procedury a jsou mu zapůjčeny ochranné pomůcky – rukavice, rouška, čelenka a izolační obuv.

Závěr kryoterapie je také trochu makačka. „Po proceduře je potřeba se

With no roman style, it's a feisty creation guided by imagination instead of restrictive writing tools. Lisbeth is an energetic, freely flowing stroke wrapped around practical and efficient letter proportions. It shimmers, dances, and makes you take notice of its sociable voice and twisting display style—a narrow font with a wide range.

Both kindly and commanding, Trevor is a neighbourly slab serif that sees the best in others. Its rounded corners rule the day, mimicking metal type's ink spread to soften the overall appearance. That easygoing look is tempered by very few inktraps and sharp corners. Trevor connects with others by consciously riding the line between being personal and commanding, inky and rounded, narrow and sturdy.

A multi-functional type family, Ebony remains true to TypeTogether's focus on stylish typographic answers for the complex needs of printed and digital works. Ebony promises great performance in branding and advertising with its dark weights and taut, powerful curves. It is a type family that cleverly seeks a balance between the openness and legibility of humanist sans serifs and the striking and more regularised character of grotesques. In short, Ebony is a daringly bold sans serif.

An electric Bus transports Summit attendees to and from the Moscone Center in downtown San Francisco. Reports.

It's not easy going green. Offer electric buses and some still choose hulking Chevy Suburbans. Require paperless brochures and some hawk their colorful booklets. At the GCAS, a three-day gathering here this week, organizers wanted the mayors, governors, international leaders and others attending to show the world that a large convention in a big city needn't leave carbon footprints all over. The panel discussions, speakers and networking events drew more than 4,000 people to the venues to push for efforts to curb carbon emissions in support of the Paris climate agreement. Local governments across the country have committed to the accord despite senator's declaration that he would withdraw the United States from it. Few places could prove more fitting for such a challenge than this city, which prides itself on recycling campaigns and restaurants that don't offer plastic straws. A dramatic, contemporary Didone titling family that scales beyond the world of looks by tapping into archetypes. Each style has alternate forms, a grand ensemble cast of ligatures, and a separate optical size for titling which doubles its capabilities. The Fino type system includes serif, sans, and stencil styles that amplify the genre's most theatrical aspects while bestowing uncommon flexibility in this font category.

Molto is a multipurpose slab serif font family, adding unique flourishes to a robust and straight-edged base design. Its nine weights are defined by their intended use and can both overwhelm and impress with determined curves, terminals of concrete, and surprising swashes. The two extreme weights (Hair and Fat) act as display partners for magazines, titles, and posters.

MUSEUM ANALYSES ASHES FOR PROOF THEY ARE PAINTINGS BY PICASSO, MATISSE, AND MONET

A Romanian museum is analysing ashes found in a stove to see if they are the remains of seven paintings by Picasso, Matisse, Monet and others that were stolen last year from the Netherlands, an official has said.

The prosecutor's spokeswoman, Gabriela Chiru, told Associated Press that Romania's National History Museum was examining the ashes found in the stove of Olga Dogaru. She is the mother of Radu Dogaru, one of three Romanian suspects charged with stealing the paintings from Rotterdam's Kunsthal gallery in a daytime heist.

It was the biggest art theft in more than a decade in the Netherlands. The stolen works have an estimated value of tens of millions of dollars if they were sold at auction.

Dogaru told investigators she was scared for her son after he was arrested in January and buried the art in an abandoned house and then in a cemetery in the village of Caracliu. She said she later dug them up and burned them in February after police began searching the village for the stolen works.

A modern dual-script sans begun in geometric Arabic then cleverly and harmoniously advanced into Latin. This seven weight powerhouse gives progressive options in multilingual editorials and newspapers. Introducing more curved and novel forms into the Latin brings its choppy strokes into greater harmony with the Arabic's graceful, curved forms. Altogether, AwanZaman embodies the ideals of serving the global community with balance and style.

Spying on the Dog

Do you really want to know what your pets are doing while you're away?

Ever since our labradoodle, Rocket, arrived on the scene earlier this year, our furniture has taken a beating. Sofa corners have been gnawed, throw pillows have been destroyed and sisal baskets have become chew toys. And this all happened while someone was at home to supervise him.

The newest petcams not only allow owners to monitor pets' behavior remotely, they also offer entertainment and two-way communication.

So like other pet owners before me, I turned to technology for peace of mind. Surely a pet cam was the answer. Among the latest gadgets vying for a slice of the estimated $72 billion pet industry, these Wi-Fi-enabled cameras come loaded with

'Flammable' bras hold back female conscripts in Sweden

The bras issued to Swedish female military conscripts easily catch fire and are prone to coming undone, making them inappropriate for the battlefield, claims a conscripts' rights group.

The current lack of combat-ready underwear for Sweden's women in uniform has been a continuing sore point for the Swedish Conscription Council (Värnpliktsrådet).

"Our opinion is that the Swedish Armed Forces should have ordered good, flame-proof underwear," Council spokesperson Paulina Reh binder told The Local. "There should be suitable apparel for women."

The poor quality of the standard-issue sports bras prompted a group of female soldiers at the LV 6 military base in Halmstad to voice their displeasure to representatives from the Council recently.

The women complained that the bras' fasteners have a tendency to come undone when the women performed rigorous exercise, forcing the female soldiers to take off all of their equipment in order to refasten the brassieres.

In addition, the bras aren't flame resistant and, once lit, can melt onto conscripts' skin, the Göteborgs-Posten (GP) newspaper reports. The Council's Reh binder accuses Sweden's military establishment of dragging its feet on the issue.

Temeraire rescues disparate styles from English lettering traditions that are lost to time. Most type families only increase in weight, but this family's cuts are related by impeccable taste and conspicuous style. It was designed for attention, reference, and modern use instead of remaining invisible. Temeraire is a typographic exploration intended to be seen—with its beauty, one could even say beheld—in books, magazines, and large formats.

LA ESTATUA DE LA LIBERTAD es todo un emblema de los Estados Unidos que luce en el sur de la isla de Manhattan. Fue un regalo que recibió el país norteamericano en el año 1886 por parte de los franceses, no sólo como un símbolo de amistad entre ambos países, sino también porque se cumplía un nuevo aniversario de la Declaración de la Independencia de ese país.

Es decir, representa una fecha en la cual Estados Unidos comenzó a ser 'libre' por no depender de otro país, pero paradójicamente, muchísimos otros países comenzaron a perder su libertad por depender de Estados Unidos. Lo cierto es que la cantidad de delitos continúan incrementándose en New York por lo que los ciudadanos se percataron de la posibilidad de que alguien se robe la estatua de la libertad. "Nuestra bellísima estatua está en peligro, está demasiado libre y en la zona hay muchos mexicanos, por lo que puede ser robada" dijo una autoridad del estado. Por tal motivo,

Rustichello of Pisa

CHAPTER XV.

*Of the Great Festival which
The Kaan Holds on New Year's Day.*

MARCO POLO

(Venecia, c. 15 de septiembre de 1254-ibidem, 8/9 de enero de 1324) fue un mercader y viajero veneciano, célebre por los relatos que se le atribuyen sobre el viaje a Asia Oriental, manuscritos por Rustichello de Pisa con el título original de Il Milione, y conocido en español como Los viajes de Marco Polo, narración que dio a conocer en la Europa medieval las tierras y civilizaciones del Asia central y China.

ThE BEGINNING of their New Year is the month of February, and on that occasion the Great Kaan and all his subjects made such a Feast as I now shall describe. It is the custom that on this occasion the Kaan and all his subjects should be clothed entirely in white; so, that day, everybody is in white, men and women, great and small. And this is done in order that they may thrive all through the year, for they deem that white clothing is lucky. On that day also all the people of all the provinces and governments and kingdoms and countries that own allegiance to the Kaan bring him great presents of gold and silver, and pearls and gems, and rich textures of divers kinds. LOUISA, LA DONNA CON LA FOBIA PER I BOTTONI

Si chiama Louisa Francis ha 30 anni, viene da Newcastle in Inghilterra e rappresenta una delle pochissime persone al mondo a soffrire di Koumpounophobia, ovvero la paura per i bottoni.

Quando la donna vede un bottone infatti, è presa da un attacco di panico e rimane quasi paralizzata dalla paura.

Tutto iniziò all'età di circa 7 anni, dopo che insieme ai suoi amici aveva fatto un gioco con i bottoni che la terrorizzò a tal punto da farla scappare di corsa. Da allora Louisa rabbrivisce al solo pensiero dei bottoni. «Il peggior incidente che mi capitò fu quando mi trovavo ad Asda (una catena di supermercati), la cassiera indossava una giacca completamente ricoperta di bottoni e come se non bastasse, anche il suo bracciale era fatto con bottoni.

E proprio questi, ogni volta che passava un prodotto allo scanner, si avvicinavano a me facendo rumore; mi hanno fatto venire un attacco di panico e non sono più riuscita a mantenere la calma. Sono scappata senza prendere la spesa, mentre tutti mi guardavano.» – ricorda con ansia la donna.

I bottoni in casa Francis sono vietati, tutti i suoi vestiti e quelli di sua figlia Bobby hanno la zip o semplicemente si indossano senza essere allacciati.

«So benissimo che non possono farmi niente e che da soli non si muovono neanche, ma c'è qualcosa in me che scatta quando ne vedo uno.»

Ma come avrà fatto a fare le foto per i giornali? •

From Qenya to Gnomish to Sindarin, the 'high elven-speech' J.R.R. Tolkien uses amply throughout the 'Lord of the Rings' trilogy was the product of almost 40 years of what the English author once referred to as his 'secret vice': glossopoeia, or language creation. As Carl F. Hostetter writes in an essay in Catherine McIlwaine's "Tolkien: Maker of Middle-earth," his was a labor 'performed and preserved on thousands of manuscript pages containing Tolkien's minutely detailed description and unceasing elaboration (and revision) of not just one but rather of a family of invented languages, which can be collectively called the Elvish tongues.' Although not alone in this practice, Tolkien was the first philologist to establish such a network of evolving dialects that derive from one another 'by slowly accumulating changes and divergences in form across time from a common ancestor species.' SPOILED BY BEAUTY AND DEALS ON THE IRISH COAST

Frugal Traveller Issue

There's a lost city called Kiltiffen beneath the Cliffs of Moher — or so the story goes — which sprawl grandly over the Atlantic Ocean on the western coast of Ireland. The city was submerged and, according to legend, will remain so until the golden key to the gates are found. All I knew, standing blissfully alone atop a precarious bluff looking far down onto jagged rocks and sparkling cobalt water below, was that I owed that witch a debt

North Carolina, After the Storm: What Travelers Need to Know

Hurricane Florence may have struck the Carolinas only a week ago, but that's not stopping surfers at the Easterns Surfing Championships, currently underway in Nags Head, N.C. Tourism on the barrier islands known as the Outer Banks, as in much of the state, is up and running. "We're dealing with the challenge of helping Americans understand the Outer Banks are open and ready for business," said Aaron

Tuell, a spokesman for the Outer Banks Visitors Bureau. "We've taken a lot of calls wondering if we're open and they are surprised we were spared." Travelers can again reach North Carolina via its main airports, which are all operating without storm-related delays. Delta Air Lines is extending its grace period for itinerary changes without fees through Monday, Sept. 24 on flights into or out of Jacksonville, New Bern and

WALES: IN THE MAIL, REMINDERS OF LOVE

Care packages received in Wales were a discovery: that love could ground you wherever you landed, even as you flung yourself away from it.

Large chunks of my 20th summer were spent waiting in line at Welsh post offices. I was covering Wales for a budget travel guide, and my boyfriend sent me care packages that waited for me at various points along my route. Noah was a rabbi-in-training, a deeply organized, constitutionally pastoral human being, and I — traveling alone, living out of a dirty backpack, ill-equipped for the gig, still somewhat terrified by the idea of talking to strangers — lived for those packages, and for the reminder of our relationship as a context in which I felt known and seen; for their reminder of his touch, his laugh and his solidity. Les canards inquiets de l'augmentation du prix du baril de miettes de pain

Depuis plusieurs mois, le prix du baril de miettes de pain s'est complètement envolé, une situation qui inquiète beaucoup dans la canard-sphère.

C'est ce que les experts appellent déjà «la crise de la miette».

À l'origine de cette flambée des prix: l'instabilité dans une large zone Nord-Est du panier à pain où les miettes sont normalement produites et entreposées. Un véritable imbroglio géopolitique dont les canards font les frais. Pour résumer: les fourmis ont envahi la zone, obligeant les humains à se débarrasser des miettes plus rapidement en les jetant par la fenêtre. Par ricochet, la miette de pain se faisant plus rare, son prix s'est tout naturellement envolé.

Autour du lac de Dumesnil, les plus anciens tentent de rassurer les plus jeunes. C'est pas la première crise, on avait déjà vu une augmentation en 1970 lors du grand choc de la fougasse témoigne Rufio, un col vert. L'arrêt de la consommation de la fougasse par les humains, première productrice de miettes à l'époque avec 45 % de la production

Veronika Burian and José Scaglione met and developed a respectful kinship while completing their Master's degrees in type design at University of Reading, UK. Established in 2006, TypeTogether is an independent, cosmopolitan type foundry that creates text typography for intensive digital and print editorial use. We have grown into a core team living worldwide and invested in the daily work, networked with other type designers who intermittently cooperate on specific projects.

Custom Type

To carry an organisation's unique voice across all communications, TypeTogether creates custom type solutions for discerning clients worldwide. Distinct advantages in your market can be gained through logotype creation, commissioning a brand new typeface, modifying existing typefaces, or extending language support. Education

Convinced that education and encouragement are great ways to put good into the world, TypeTogether takes an active, educational role in the type community. Our annual Gerard Unger Scholarship provides mentorship and support to one promising type design graduate as they publish their first type family. Beyond their regular duties, José has served on the ATypI board since 2007 and as president since 2013, and Veronika is a founding member of the Alphettes.org network and part of its mentorship program. We are dedicated to educating and encouraging those around us through conferences and workshops, as a teacher or mentor, and with ongoing research and published materials.
